

WHAT IS GASSHUKU?

The Gasshuku is a training camp where participants can experience a retreat for studying and living the teachings of the art. During the camp days the Aikidoka will share a daily life with the Master and this is also an unprecedented occasion for attending oral teachings about Pedagogy, Spirituality, Symbolism and Esoterism of Aikido.

WHY IN HOTEL ŠPIK AT KRANJSKA GORA?

Hotel Špik opened in 2009 in the heart of Gozd-Martuljek. The beauty of the surrounding nature reflects in the character of the hotel, its shape and comprehensive offer which is based on the exceptional beauty of the Alpine world.

Hotel Špik impresses with its consideration of sustainable co-existing with the alpine environment, natural beauty and tradition. The connection with local environment, relaxation, exercise and dynamics of the outstanding architectural design contribute thoroughly to the quality of life long after your visit.

Hotel Špik has its own special character. Authentic and carefully selected materials bring warmth and kindness to the rooms, while the wide open views of the Julian summits and the Karavanke forests have a soothing and relaxing on our customers.